Mother's Day

A Mother's Love

Blessing of having a Mother's Love.

We need to make every moment count as we carry the mantle of our mother's love.
Honor the legacy of what your mother put inside of you.....

Some mothers have suffered abuse and may not have been able to train their children in the way that they should have but we must still honor our mothers as they did the best that they could.

Mothers are not perfect but their love goes beyond saying. Children don't understand at times why they are made to do certain things by their mothers but only a mother's love and desire for the best will put up front for what is right.

Ephesians 6:1-3

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

Honor your father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; That it may be well with thee, and thou may live long on the earth.

Honor your mother and father for who they are.....many times children hold grudges against their parents but they are not perfect and we must all allow the word of God to change our hearts and mold us into individuals that not only honor our mothers but to honor God. Do what is right so that we may make a difference in the lives of others.

Proverbs 31:25-30

Strength and honor are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She opened her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looks well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children rise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that fears the Lord, she shall be praised.

The first Mother's Day was celebrated in 1912.

The heart of a mother is like a rare jewel.

Mothers are different and share many struggles. Mothers bring life into this world and go through many trials to love and protect their children.

Mothers make the ultimate sacrifice to train their children in the ways of the Lord that he may not depart from it when he is old.

Matthew 15:4 For God commanded, saying, Honor your father and mother: and, He that curses father or mother, let him die the death.

As we honor those in our lives as well as our parents, things will go well with us and if we do not, things will not go well.
